

January 14, 2009

Re: DT 06-067, BayRing Communications Access Charges Complaint
Procedural Schedule

To the Parties:

On November 5, 2008, Staff filed a report of a technical session held in the above-captioned docket. In its report, Staff outlined the participants' agreement on a proposed procedural schedule and a uniform method for calculating amounts at issue in Phase II of the proceeding. The proposed schedule includes briefing on the issues of applicable reparations period(s) and interest rate(s), submission of refund/credit calculations, and break-out sessions, as necessary, concerning the amounts at issue.

The Commission reviewed and approved the schedule and calculation method outlined by Staff. Accordingly, the procedural schedule was established as follows:

Briefs and Calculations of Disputed Charges	Dec. 19, 2008
Reply Briefs	Jan. 9, 2009
Calculations of Refunds/Credits Owed by Verizon	Jan. 23, 2009
Break-Out Sessions with Verizon, Claimants, and Staff (as necessary)	Feb. 11-12, 2009

February Break-Out Sessions

	February 11, 2008	February 12, 2008
9-11:00 am	BayRing	Sprint
11:15-1:15 pm	AT&T	XO Communications
1:15-2:15 pm	Lunch	Lunch
2:15-4:15 pm	One Communications	Global Crossing

In the event parties determine that break-out sessions are necessary, Staff is asked to report to the Commission on the results of discussions by no later than February 20, 2009.

Sincerely,

Debra A. Howland
Executive Director